

Five Keys to God's Promises of Protection

Key Verse: Psalm 91:1-2 – “He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.”

1. What does it practically mean to “dwell in the shelter of the Most High” instead of just occasionally turning to God in emergencies?

---

---

---

2. Pastor Sasha asked, “What are the words of my mouth?” Why do you think what we speaks matters so much in difficult seasons? How are you doing in this specific area?

---

---

---

3. Pastor Sasha asked, “Who has the last word?” What voices tend to compete with God’s promises in our lives? How are you doing in this specific area?

---

---

---

4. Verse 14 of Psalm 91 says, "Because He holds fast to me in love..." Why do you think intimacy with God is emphasized before protection and deliverance? How would that look for you personally in everyday life?

---

---

---