

Fearless Christianity

Key Verse: Hebrews 13:6 – “So we can confidently say, “The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?”

1. Pastor Matt talked about how we can and should be fearless because we belong to Jesus, our future is secure, and all of our days have been ordained by Him. Do you believe these truths? How do these truths change the way you face daily fears, struggles, or opposition?

2. What’s one thing you can personally draw inspiration from for your own life when you think about the story of Felicitas, and how she boldly lived out her faith? How about Charlie Kirk’s life, and his fearlessness in life?

3. On Sunday, we talked about how “meekness” (Matthew 5:5) doesn’t mean “weakness”, but “strength under control”. Having been “gentled” by the Holy Spirit; useful for the Master’s purposes. Which one of the two examples Pastor Matt shared would you say you are right now: the wild stallion, or the gentled thoroughbred? What do you think needs to change in you, to become who you’re supposed to be?

4. Warren Wiersbe (speaking about the Great Commission found in Matthew 28:18) says that, “Here, Jesus by His authority orders activity... Jesus was saying, “While you are going, make disciples of all the nations.” In your current routines (work, school, family, community), how can you intentionally live out a fearless witness for Christ?
